Welcome to another year of Masonic fellowship. We hope you had a great summer season and are raring to go for another Masonic year. Wor. Master, Bro. James Fraser welcomes us back to a year of exciting Masonic happenings. There are 7 brothers waiting for various degrees, a Golf tournament coming up, fundraisers to organize, parades, church service, annual District meeting and remembrance services to participate in, and monthly Lodge meetings with our Masonic friends. We hope you make a special effort this year to attend as many meetings as your cable tow allows. If you need help getting to the meetings, please contact any member.

The upcoming meeting starts at 6 pm for a barbeque supper for which there is a small fee. Lodge opens at 7:30 pm. Dress is casual for this meeting.

Annual Golf Tournament – Saturday, September 5 at 12 noon. Brothers Mark Firth and Colin MacKinnon are organizing this event. It's at the Glen Lovat Golf Course on Frasers Mountain. Below is the details of this event. Help is needed to sell sponsors and to register yourself for a great day with your Masonic friends on the golf course.

A supper precedes the meeting, for which pre-sold tickets are required. The District Church Service will be at Sharon St. John United Church, Stellarton in November.

Cribbage Board Raffle. The draw for this beautiful cribbage board will take place at this meeting. Tickets are $2.00, or 3 for $5.00. Bro. James Fraser will have tickets at the meeting. If you are not planning to attend the meetings, please mail a cheque payable to Albion Lodge #5 and send it to the Lodge Secretary at the address below.
