All members are urged to make every effort to be in attendance. Please note there will be no candidates admitted at this meeting. All qualified candidates will be invited to our September meeting.

All current officers are requested to advise the Eminent Secretary immediately if they will not be in attendance and whether they are willing to accept an office if reappointed.

MESSAGE FROM THE PRE-EMINENT
GOVERNOR

A year seems to go so terribly fast as we get a bit older. It seems like I was only just preparing to be installed as the Pre-eminent Governor of this wonderful College instead of looking back on a most pleasant year. Though we meet but three times a year, we do important work in support of our York Rite and hopefully set the example in tradition, conduct, dress and the excellence of our work. I am very proud to have been accepted to sit among such distinguished Brethren and most grateful to have had this opportunity to serve as Pre-eminent Governor. I wish the Pre-eminent Governor Elect, together with all the Companion Knights of the College, all the best for the ensuing year and as usual pledge my continuing support to the College.

PROPOSALS FOR MEMBERSHIP TO BE
BALLOTTED ON THIS MEETING

RE-BALLOT:

Mst. Wor. Bro. George Grant
Rt. Wor. Bro. Frank Gammell
Wor. Bro. Raymond Simmons

These Brothers were accepted for our last class but were unable to attend and a period of one year will have elapsed.

The following Brother, a member in good standing of a Craft Lodge, a Chapter of Royal Arch Masons, a Council of Royal and Select Masters and a Preceptory of Knights Templar were regularly proposed for membership at the March meeting and will be balloted on at this meeting.
